

Cammie Hauser
Atticus Senior Practice Advisor

Cammie Hauser is a Senior Practice Advisor with Atticus, Inc., one of the nation's leading practice management education and training organizations for attorneys. Cammie has more than 15 years of experience in public accounting, including regional and national firms. She also worked in private industry as a Regional CFO for a public company. This experience allows her to provide a breadth of advice to her clients.

Cammie still holds her CPA license in the State of Florida. Working solely with attorneys, she especially enjoys helping attorneys realize their financial potential, build championship teams and market intentionally while having fun. In order to "keep in touch" with the current generation, she teaches internationally at Emanuel University, Romania.

Cammie received both her B.S. in Business Administration in Accounting and her Master of Business Administration from University of Central Florida and has served on and or held positions with the following organizations: President, Anthony House; Member, Florida Institute of Certified Public Accounts; President, Orlando SERTOMA and various Treasurer positions.

Testimonial

“We were looking forward to your keynote address being the hit of our Conference, and we were not disappointed. The attendees loved it and lawyers are never an easy audience. I think it even kept at least one lawyer awake at night considering the many new ideas you gave him!”

– Jack Harris, Executive Director, Virginia Trial Lawyers Association
